

I Remember ...?

Please write down the first thing that “pops” into your mind about each topic on the line provided. Then go around the room and find other students who wrote the same or similar feelings.

A large circle is divided into six equal segments by three lines that intersect at the center. Each segment contains a topic and a line for names. The topics and their corresponding name lines are:

- Natural Childbirth: Names: _____
- The Baby: Names: _____
- Pain: Names: _____
- Hospitals: Names: _____
- Medication: Names: _____
- Doctor or Midwife: Names: _____
